

2017 Fall Retreat - Just Quilting

The time has come! Once again we've titled our retreat Just Quilting. We will provide the environment and the food. You bring your project (or projects), visit with other quilters, share ideas, and make new friends! You know, the things quilters do best.

At the July meeting, we will begin registration for the Fall 2017 Quilt Retreat which is October 12th - 15th, 2017. Be ready to sign up early and pick your spot. Prices will remain the same as the last retreat (see the registration form). You can reserve your table for a $40 deposit with the balance due 10/7/17. The biggest retreat day to date has been 82 quilters. This time we will have a limit of 85 quilters per day due to room limitations.

Misc. Items: As always we will have a massage therapist Thursday, Friday, and Saturday. It wouldn't be a DQG Retreat without our garage sale. Please feel free to bring any items you want to sell labeled with your name and the price. Please, no heavy perfumes at retreat (as some are allergic) and use headphones when listening to music or books. The last thing, please no talk of politics! Let's sew and have fun!

Retreat Challenge: Remember, we have another retreat challenge this Fall with a theme of "Birds". Go to our website for details at: <http://www.dentonquiltguild.org/retreatchallenge.html>. Questions, e-mail: Kathleen Francis, Kathy Malmberg, or Sher Harnish.

Food: Extreme Cuisine Catering will once again provide delicious meals for us to enjoy. As always we will have door prizes at each meal (except Sunday).

Quilt Shop On Site: We are happy to announce that Geri Campbell, owner of Quilt Republic in Pottsville, will set-up shop at this retreat!

We all look forward to this time of quilting and friendship. See you there!

New to Retreat? What is this thing we call Quilt Retreat and Why Is Everyone So Excited About It? At a DQG Quilt Retreat, you bring your sewing machine, your supplies, and fabric and spend wonderful uninterrupted time working on your projects. Or, leave the machine at home and bring hand work. Each person has a 6' table and banquet chair to use each day of retreat. For comfort, some people bring their own chairs to retreat. We have a snack table with coffee, water, and snacks. Lunch and dinner are provided each day. The best part is spending time with friends and meeting new friends. If you don't know many people, just let Laura or Sherry know and we can seat you with a DQG long-time member.
